

Please STOP Low Power FM stations from expanding into current translator FM services. K-LOVE is a necessary and useful station that services many needs in my community. It is unacceptable to lose this FM station availability. Many families depend on the programs that are aired on K-LOVE and their music is essential to answer life's questions.